

I. ENTRIES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Service Provider is the non-public continuing education institution, the British Council Centre for Children and Teenagers, entered in the register of schools and non-public institutions kept by the Capital City of Warsaw under no. 92/Pz; and the non-public continuing education institution, the British Council Centre for Adults, entered in the register of schools and non-public institutions kept by the Capital City of Warsaw under no. 1112K - entities governed by the Fundacja British Council registered in District Court for the Capital City of Warsaw in Warsaw, XII Commercial Division of the National Court Register under KRS number 0000449621, NIP (Tax Identity No.): 7010369489, with its principal office in Warsaw, Poland and address at Koszykowa 54, 00-675 Warszawa, Poland (hereinafter referred to as 'the British Council').
2. Service Receiver is a natural person, a legal entity, or an organisational unit without the status of a legal entity (candidate, school or institution), who or which uses a remote agreement provided by the British Council, within the territory of Poland.

CONDITIONS OF REMOTE AGREEMENT CONCLUSION

3. British Council provides remote services:
 - 3.1 on the www.britishcouncil.pl website by printing the form available on the website and sending it to the British Council by e-mail (in case of individual registration);
 - 3.2 by e-mail (a message with the confirmation of entering one's name on the list of candidates for an exam at the British Council; the confirmation of the exam fee posting, and with additional Service Receiver's consent, the newsletter).
4. The agreement between the Service Provider and the Service Receiver for the administration of a selected exam shall be deemed entered into (the moment of the exam registration completion) upon the payment of the exam fee by the Service Receiver after his or her data is entered on the list of candidates for a selected exam and delivered to Service Provider. The Service Receiver's failure to pay the fee in the amount and within the time limit set forth by the Service Provider will result in removing the Service Receiver's entry from the list of candidates and the agreement contemplated in this point will not be entered into. If the Service Receiver enters untrue or incomplete data on the list of candidates, the Service Provider will attempt to contact the Service Receiver in order to supplement or rectify the data. If such an attempt proves unsuccessful, the Service Provider may withdraw from the agreement.

EXAM FEES

1. The British Council will collect a fee for the administration of the exam and the despatch of examination papers to the examination board. For the register of fees see Annex 1 being an integral part of the Regulations.
2. Exam fees are given in Polish zloty. The price given for each exam is binding upon the placement of a purchase order by the customer. Invoices for exams are issued in an electronic form and sent to customers by e-mail.
3. The exam fee shall be paid by the Service Receiver following the entry to the list of candidates by a bank transfer for the benefit of the Service Provider or as a cash payment to the account of the Service Provider made within the time limit and in the way set forth by the British Council and published in the specific exam regulations and on the Service Provider's site.
4. At the Service Provider's offices in Warsaw and Kraków, the Service Receiver can pay the exam fee by a payment card (Visa, Visa Electron, Maestro, MasterCard, MasterCard Electronic, American Express). In case the payment is made by card as described in this point, the agreement is entered into at the Service Provider's offices and, as such, is not a remote agreement.
5. The Service Receiver who paid the exam fee but failed to enter his or her name on the list of candidates within the time limit indicated for registration shall be entitled to full reimbursement of the exam fee. In this case no exam administration agreement is entered into between the Service Receiver and the Service Provider.

12.4 candidates can change the date of the examination only after they have received approval from the examination board where they registered for the exam.

III. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

1. The British Council ensures equal opportunities to all candidates, including persons with special needs. Special arrangements can be provided under the conditions stated below.

1.1 Disabled candidates

Candidates who require special arrangements (e.g. candidates with hearing or visual difficulties) are asked to report this fact to the institution with which they are registering for the exam. The terms and conditions related to the granting of special arrangements to candidates are defined by the examination boards.

1.2 Candidates with dyslexia, dysgraphia or dysorthographia

Candidates applying for extra time for the examination because of dyslexia, dysgraphia or dysorthographia are asked to report this fact to the institution with which they are registering for the exam. The terms and conditions related to the granting of special arrangements to candidates are defined by the examination boards.

IV. EXAM ARRANGEMENTS

1. British Council in Poland organises examination session for candidates wishing to sit a British exam but who are not able to travel to the United Kingdom to do this.
2. This service is delivered at the request of the examination board and is available only in the case of written examinations.
3. Candidates should:
 - 3.1 be punctual (latecomers will not be allowed into the exam room),
 - 3.2 bring a valid identity document (with a recent photo),
 - 3.3 bring a pen, pencil, eraser.
4. Candidates are not allowed to bring any electronic equipment to the exam venue except for mobile phones. Candidates are also requested not to bring any expensive personal items. The British Council is not liable for the loss of any items left in the cloakroom. The candidate is allowed to bring a calculator in cases defined by the examination board.

MOBILE PHONES

Mobile phones must be switched off and placed in a designated area during the whole period of the examination. Any candidate using or in possession of a mobile phone during the examination will be disqualified.

5. In performing all activities related to the implementation of the agreement, the British Council complies with the laws and guidelines in force at the given place and time in securing and protection of children and adults with special needs and the principles of the UK legislation (Children Act 1989) and The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (to the extent that those provisions are not directly applicable in Poland), as well as the British Council Child Protection Policy.

V. COMPLAINTS

1. All comments concerning the conduct of the examination should be given by the candidate to the supervisor/test administrator immediately after the examination and also in writing (by email or in person) to the British Council examination centre staff no later than five days after the examination. Information on how to submit comments can be found on www.britishcouncil.pl.
2. The Service Receiver may ask questions, give opinions or lodge complaints concerning the Service Provider and the services it provides by using the contact details available on www.britishcouncil.pl. The Service Provider shall address all opinions, questions or complaints from the Service Receivers within five working days of their receipt.
