

SEMINARS

Warsaw, 24 November 2018, room A

TIME	PRESENTER	TITLE
11.15 – 12.15	UWE Bristol, Hayley Iovannelli	Employability and Careers support for International students Find out what opportunities are available to International students and how to put your learning into practice.
12.30 – 13.30	ESCP Europe, Nicolas Martin	Bachelor in Management (BSc) at ESCP Europe ESCP Europe is the world's first business school (est. 1819). Having six urban campuses allows ESCP Europe to provide a unique style of cross-cultural business education and a global perspective on international management issues. Its Bachelor in Management (BSc) is a unique interdisciplinary three-year programme that combines management subjects with liberal arts and languages in three different cities (Berlin, London, Madrid, Paris, Turin).
13.45 – 14.45	University of Roehampton, Keyan Zhu	Studying at University of Roehampton London's only parkland campus university, with first-rate academic, sporting and leisure facilities. A modern university but with a distinctive collegiate history dating back to 1841, creating a strong sense of community on campus. Please join me to find out more about University of Roehampton.
15.00 – 16.00	SOAS University of London, Matt Naylor	Introducing SOAS SOAS University of London is the only UK university specialising in the study of Asia, Africa and the Middle East. Centrally located in Bloomsbury moments from the British Museum, SOAS has on-site one of the UK's five National Research Libraries. This session will explore the regional specialism and interdisciplinary approach at SOAS in general, before moving on to consider it in relation to undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Economics, International Relations, Law and Management.
16.15 – 17.15	University of East Anglia, Jessica Smith	How to choose a UK university and life at UEA This talk promises the inside story on what it is like to live in Norwich and study at one of the UK's top 15 universities, The University of East Anglia. Unsure about which UK university to choose? We can help you decide with this interesting session