

I. ENTRIES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Service Provider is the non-public continuing education institution, the British Council Centre for Children and Teenagers, entered in the register of schools and non-public institutions kept by the Capital City of Warsaw under no. 92/Pz; and the non-public continuing education institution, the British Council Centre for Adults, entered in the register of schools and non-public institutions kept by the Capital City of Warsaw under no. 1112K - entities governed by the Fundacja British Council registered in District Court for the Capital City of Warsaw in Warsaw, XII Commercial Division of the National Court Register under KRS number 0000449621, NIP (Tax Identity No.): 7010369489, with its principal office in Warsaw, Poland and address at Koszykowa 54, 00- 675 Warsaw, Poland (hereinafter referred to as 'the British Council').
2. Service Receiver is a natural person, a legal entity, or an organisational unit without the status of a legal entity (candidate, school or institution), who or which uses a remote agreement provided by the British Council, within the territory of Poland.

CONDITIONS OF REMOTE AGREEMENT CONCLUSION

3. British Council provides remote services:
 - 3.1 on the www.britishcouncil.pl website by entering one's name on the list of candidates for a Cambridge English language exam using an on-line registration system (individual candidates), or by printing the form available on the website and sending it to the British Council by e-mail (institutional candidates);
 - 3.2 by e-mail (a message with the confirmation of entering one's name on the list of candidates for an exam at the British Council; the confirmation of the exam fee posting, and with additional Service Receiver's consent, the sending of newsletter).
4. The agreement between the Service Provider and the Service Receiver for the administration of a selected exam shall be deemed entered into (the moment of the exam registration completion) upon the payment of the exam fee by the Service Receiver after registration in the on-line registration system for a selected exam. The Service Receiver's failure to pay the fee in the amount and within the time limit set forth by the Service Provider in the table below and on the Site will result in removing the Service Receiver's entry from the list of candidates and the agreement contemplated in this point will not be entered into. If the Service Receiver enters untrue or incomplete data on the list of candidates, the Service Provider will attempt to contact the Service Receiver in order to supplement or rectify the data. If such an attempt proves unsuccessful, the Service Provider may withdraw from the agreement.

EXAM FEES

5. The YLE test fee is 280 PLN.
6. Exam fees are given in Polish zloty, in the tariff published on the www.britishcouncil.pl site. The price given for each exam is binding upon the placement of a purchase order by the customer.
7. The exam fee shall be paid by the Service Receiver following the entry to the list of candidates by a bank transfer for the benefit of the Service Provider or as a cash payment to the account of the Service Provider made within the time limit and in the way set forth by the British Council and published in the specific exam regulations and on the Service Provider's site.
8. At the Service Provider's offices in Warsaw and Kraków, the Service Receiver can pay the exam fee by a payment card (Visa, Visa Electron, Maestro, MasterCard, MasterCard Electronic, American Express). In case the payment is made by card as described in this point, the present Regulations are not applicable as the agreement is entered into at the Service Provider's offices and, as such, is not a remote agreement.

9. The Service Receiver who paid the exam fee but failed to register via registration system within the time limit indicated for registration shall be entitled to full reimbursement of the exam fee. In this case no exam administration agreement is entered into between the Service Receiver and the Service Provider.
10. Fundacja British Council does not accept payments in cash.

REGISTRATION – GENERAL PROVISIONS

11. If the number of candidates registered in a British Council exam centre does not meet the minimum required by the British Council and Cambridge Assessment English, the British Council will reimburse the fees to the candidates.
12. Registration after the registration deadline or incomplete will not be accepted.

REGISTRATION - INDIVIDUAL CANDIDATES

13. In order to register a child for a YLE test you should:
 - 13.1. Find a suitable exam date, format and location in the YLE on-line registration system available at <http://www.britishcouncil.pl/en/exam/cambridge/register> and complete an entry form no later than the last day of registration.
 - 13.2. Pay the exam fee no later than the payment deadline given in the registration system.
14. The exam registration confirmation will be sent by British Council Examination Centre by e-mail.
15. Candidates will receive information on the exam timetable by e-mail approximately 7 days before the date of their test. If they do not receive this information one week before the written part of the examination they are requested to contact Fundacja British Council examination centre immediately.

REGISTRATION - CANDIDATES REGISTERED BY SCHOOLS/INSTITUTIONS

16. Schools/institutions registering candidates for YLE tests in the British Council Examination Centre complete registration formalities and provide its students with:
 - registration deadlines,
 - the exam fees and methods of payment.
17. Candidates should inform the person responsible for the organisation of Cambridge English examinations at the school/institution of their wish to sit the exam at the time indicated by that school/institution.
18. Candidates registered by school/institution will receive their session timetable directly by e-mail and also through the school/institution that registered them for the exam. Candidates who do not receive their session timetable 7 days prior to the exam date, are asked to contact their registering school/institution immediately.

II. REFUNDS AND OTHER CHANGES

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF REFUNDS

1. A refund of the examination fee is possible under the following conditions only:
 - 1.1. The Service Receiver being a natural person who has paid the exam fee as set forth in Section I and thus entered into a remote agreement with the Service Provider may withdraw from the agreement without giving reasons within 14 days from the date the agreement for the administration of a selected Cambridge English exam was entered into (from the moment of the exam registration completion). This right does not apply to the Service Receivers for whom the service was provided in full by the Service Provider.
 - 1.2. If an application to withdraw the examination fee is submitted before close of registration.

1.3. If the candidate was absent during the examination:

- 1.3.1. for medical reasons, on condition that the period of absence covers the date of the written test,
- 1.3.2. because of the death of a close relative, on condition that the death occurred no more than 30 days before the date of the written test for which the candidate was registered. Close relatives are spouses, common-law partners, siblings, ascendants, descendants, in-laws, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, stepparents, stepchildren, adopted children and adoptive parents,

III. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

British Council ensures equal opportunities to all candidates, including persons with special needs, under the conditions stated below.

1. Candidates with disabilities

- 1.1. Parents or legal guardians of candidates who require special arrangements (e.g. candidates with hearing or visual difficulties) are asked to inform their Fundacja British Council examination centre about this fact before they pay the exam fee. Relevant supporting documentation – a medical certificate and a form completed and signed by the candidate's parent or legal guardian – should be submitted to the Fundacja British Council examination centre where the child will be sitting the examination no later than the end of the registration period (please see table in part 1. point 1.2. above).
- 1.2. If an institution wishes to register a group of candidates with disabilities, it should contact their examination centre two months before the registration deadline for a chosen exam session, in order to discuss exam arrangements. If a request for special arrangements is placed at a later time, the centre may not be able to hold the exam on the date chosen by the institution or provide the necessary arrangements.

2. Candidates with dyslexia, dysgraphia or dysorthographia

Parents or legal guardians wishing to apply for extra time for the written parts of the examination for their children because of dyslexia, dysgraphia or dysorthographia are required to submit the following documents to the Fundacja British Council examination centre where the child will be sitting the examination no later than the end of the registration period (please see the table in part 1. point 1.2. above):

- 2.1. a report provided by a fully qualified educational, clinical or chartered psychologist stating details of the degree of dyslexia, dysgraphia or dysorthographia:

2.2. a form completed and signed by parents or legal guardians.

The form is available on www.britishcouncil.pl and in all Fundacja British Council examination centres.

No documents regarding special arrangements will be accepted after close of registration.

IV. EXAM ARRANGEMENTS

1. Individual session timetables will be included in the e-mail issued to candidates.

1.1. Individual candidates will receive their session timetable by e-mail. Candidates who do not receive their timetable 7 days prior the exam date are requested to contact the British Council exam centre with which they registered for the examination immediately. Candidates who missed their exam because they had not received their session timetable and did not report this fact to their examination centre are not entitled to a refund on this account.

1.2. Candidates registered by schools/institutions will receive their session timetable through the school/institution that registered them for the exam. Candidates, who do not receive their session timetable 7 days prior to the exam date, are asked to contact their registering school/institution immediately. Candidates who missed their exam because they had not received their session timetable and did not report this fact to their school/institution or the examination centre are not entitled to a refund on this account.

2. For each part of the exam candidates should:

- be punctual (latecomers will not be allowed into the exam room),
- bring a valid identity document (with a recent photo),
- bring a pen, pencil, eraser and the following crayons: red, green, blue, yellow, purple, orange, pink, brown, grey and black to the exam venue.

3. Candidates are not allowed to bring any electronic equipment to the exam. Candidates are also requested not to bring any expensive personal items. The Fundacja British Council is not liable for the loss of any items left in the cloakroom.

MOBILE PHONES AND WATCHES

Mobile phones and watches may not be taken into the examinations room. Candidates cannot use or be in possession of a mobile phone or watch during the whole period of the examination (including the breaks between examination components). Any candidate using or in possession of a mobile phone or watch during the examination or breaks may be disqualified.

4. Parents/legal guardians of candidates are responsible for delivering their children to the exam venue and collecting them from there at the end of the test.

During the whole period of examination (including the breaks between examination components) a child remains under the supervision of the staff of Fundacja British Council or British Council Exam Centre. After the completion of the examination a child must be collected by a parent/legal guardian or close relative aged at least 14 whose personal details were written down in the registration form and after presenting valid ID document.

V. COMPLAINTS

1. All comments concerning the conduct of the examination should be given to the supervisor/test administrator immediately after the examination (in the case of the listening test all comments should be reported at the beginning of the test, after hearing the introductory recording) and also in writing (by email or in person) to the British Council examination centre staff no later than five days after the relevant part of the examination. Information on how to submit comments can be found on www.britishcouncil.pl.

2. The Service Receiver may ask questions, give opinions or lodge complaints concerning the Service Provider and the services it provides by using the contact details available on www.britishcouncil.pl. The Service Provider shall address all opinions, questions or complaints from the Service Receivers within five working days of their receipt.

VI. RESULTS AND CERTIFICATES

1. Children who participated in all three parts of the test will receive certificates.
2. Test grades are presented in the form of shields. Each of the three test papers – Reading-Writing, Listening and Speaking is marked separately. The maximum score per paper is 5 shields which makes for 15 shields in total. It is assumed that children whose total score is 10 or more shields and no less than 3 in an individual paper are ready to prepare for the next test level.
3. Certificates are delivered by the Cambridge Assessment English to the British Council examination centre that organised the test around 8 weeks after the session date.
4. Individual candidates can collect their certificates from the British Council exam centre in which they registered for the exam, through parents, a person whose name was entered in registration form during the registration process or other person authorised in writing by parents. The authorisation form is available on www.britishcouncil.pl and at all British Council examination centres.
5. For certificates damaged after delivery to the candidate, a replacement can be produced provided the original certificate is returned within 5 years of the date of issue. There is a charge for this, as listed on the Examination Price List.
6. In the case of minors, the person whose name was entered in the registration system during the registration process, or on a form delivered by the school/institution representative, does not need to submit a document confirming their legal guardianship of the minor.
7. In order to collect the child's certificate a parent or legal guardian must present a current ID document.
8. School/institution registering their students for YLE collects their student's certificates if such a service is offered by that school.

Candidates' results and certificates are kept by an examination centre for two years from the first day they can be collected from that centre. After that time they are destroyed.

VII. LIABILITY OF THE FUNDACJA BRITISH COUNCIL

The Fundacja British Council has a fundamental duty of care towards all children we work with.

The Fundacja British Council and the Examining Boards take all reasonable steps to provide continuity of service. Those institutions, however, cannot be held responsible for any irregularities of service caused by circumstances beyond their control. In the case of delays, interruptions or cancellation of examinations or delays in the issue of results for reasons independent of the organisers, we will make every effort to resume normal service as soon as possible. In the abovementioned cases the Fundacja British Council's liability will be limited to re-testing on a later date or a refund of the registration fee. If the delays or interruptions in the course of the examinations were caused by the organisers and lasted longer than 24 hours, or if the examinations were cancelled through a fault of the organisers, candidates may apply for compensation of loss on general terms.
